Comztek scoops Adobe Distribution Partner of the Year Award

COMZTEK

PRESS RELEASE ISSUED BY TEXT 100 PUBLIC RELATIONS

[ Johannesburg, 18 June 2008 ] - Information technology distributor Comztek has been recognised for its excellence in delivering software solutions with the Adobe Distribution Partner of the Year Award. Comztek is the first distributor to be recognised by Adobe in the MEA region.

The award is based on a number of criteria including the distributor that has been most proactive, has sustained growth over the past year and has achieved the highest turnover for the region.

Comztek markets Adobe's range of software for the print publishing, digital imaging, web design and development, video and audio markets, as well as e-Learning software and the complete Acrobat family.

Simon Bromfield, Adobe Distributor Channel Manager, said: "This award is an attribute to Comztek's dedication to Adobe products. Adobe has chosen to recognise the tireless effort that Comztek has put into consistently achieving their targets during 2007."

Beverley Balaes, Adobe channel manager at Comztek, says: "This award illustrates the commitment that has been made by Comztek to Adobe. We value our relationships with our partners."

"Our success can also be attributed to Comztek's dedication to adding true value to resellers," adds Balaes. "The Software Infrastructure business unit acts as a business partner to its reseller and channel members, helping them to develop solutions for their customers that are based on best-of-breed technologies and best practice."
